

Application for review of an admissibility decision

An admissibility decision is a decision to exclude a complaint from the Service Complaints system.

The Service Complaints Ombudsman for the Armed Forces (SCOAF) has the power to review these decisions and make a final decision about whether the complaint should be accepted into the system.

Admissibility decisions are made at the initial stage of the complaints process and also at the appeal stage.

SCOAF can review both types of admissibility decisions.

When can I make an application for a review of an admissibility decision?

If a decision was made that your complaint or appeal was inadmissible and you think it was wrong, you can make an application to SCOAF to review the decision.

Applications must be made within 4 weeks and 2 days from the date the decision letter was emailed or posted to you. If your application is late, it may not be accepted.

If you need further information, or assistance to complete this form, please phone 0300 369 0689 or email contact@scoaf.org.uk.

Application for review of an admissibility decision

What is your current unit and location?

It doesn't matter if you have changed units since the admissibility decision was made.

If you are no longer serving, please provide the details of your last unit.

Are there any restrictions on when/how we can contact you?

It is really important that we can contact you if we need to follow up on something to do with your application. Please let us know if there are certain days or times when we can't contact you – including periods of leave or deployment. If we can't contact you, we might have to close your case on our system.

Reasonable adjustment

Sometimes, because of a disability or long-term health condition, people need to ask us to make changes to the way we do things so that they are not disadvantaged.

This could include providing information in plain language or a different format.

You can find more information about reasonable adjustment on our website.

Do you need us to make any reasonable adjustments?

Section 2 – What decision do you want reviewed?

Please complete all fields in this section

What type of admissibility decision do you want reviewed?

The process is the same regardless of the type of decision, but this information helps us to better understand what has happened.

- Decision that my Service Complaint was inadmissible at the initial stage
- Decision that my request for an appeal was inadmissible

Date of the decision

Applications to SCOAF need to be made within 4 weeks and 2 days from the date an admissibility decision was emailed or posted. Late applications can be accepted if it is just and equitable. This means that there are reasons that SCOAF believe make it fair and reasonable to accept the late application.

Accepting a late application is an exception.

Was the decision posted or emailed to you more than 4 weeks and 2 days ago? Yes No

If yes, why was your application late? Why do you think it would be just and equitable for SCOAF to accept it?

What part/s of your complaint were ruled inadmissible?

Don't restate your entire complaint here. Briefly state what was ruled inadmissible. For example: 'My complaint about my SJAR was ruled out of time because it happened 12 months ago'.

Why do you think these parts of your complaint should be admissible?

This is about why you think the decision was incorrect. If a part of your complaint was ruled out of time, why do you think it was 'in time'? If a part of your complaint was ruled an excluded matter, why do you think it isn't? If your request for an appeal wasn't accepted, why do you think it should have been?

Section 3 - Privacy statement

SCOAF is committed to the protection of your privacy in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018. Our aim is to ensure that the information you provide us is handled in a secure, efficient and confidential manner.

How do we process your information?

When you complete our application form we will transfer the information you provide to our Case Management System.

In the next section you will be asked to give consent for us to process and use your information. We have clearly set out each of the ways SCOAF may use your information.

What if I have concerns about how my personal information is handled?

If you are concerned about how we handle your personal information you have the right to make a complaint. You can do this by contacting our data protection officer at privacy@scoaf.org.uk.

For more information about what we do with your personal information please read our privacy policy.
